

TEMPLE CONSERVATION COMMISSION

Final Minutes, June 13, 2018

Location: Town Hall, Annex room

Attendees: Sean Radcliffe, Honey Hastings, Lincoln Geiger, Cathy Joly, Ult Mundane, Adie Krulis

Guest: Gail Cromwell

Started at 7:09 pm

Marsh Property: Gail Cromwell informed the commission of a public review of the Marsh Property on June 19th at 6pm. Additionally Gail informed the commission the BOS had made a notice of violation to the Marsh property land owners and gave an overview of town's zoning. Lastly Gail indicated the land owners had filed a special exception to the ZBA. Note: Honey Hastings removed herself from the meeting during this discussion because she is on the ZBA.

Dumping trash and perhaps more on Kulgren: Gail Cromwell gave the commission an update on the property on Kulgren road. The BOS filed a notice of violation. The landowner filed bankruptcy, stopping foreclosure. Gail commented that neighbors are not happy.

Approved May 9, 2018 minutes.

Temple Conservation Commission member discussion: There was a discussion of new residents in town and that some new residents may be interested in being on Temple Conservation Commission. Adie Krulis mentioned she found it difficult to contact Mason Con Com (via phone or email). Honey Hastings mentioned Temple Con Com may be equally difficult to contact Sean Radcliffe ask BOS if there are any problems to having a Gmail account on town website for TCC.

Discussion of aging farmers in New Hampshire: There is no news on Jean Whitcomb. There was some discussion of the value of the Greenhorns young farmers project.

Goals and mission statement for Con Com: Lincoln mentioned we need to brainstorm new ideas. We must oversee natural resource but can we widen scope? Adie suggested a joint effort between other local conservation commissions. There was a discussion of having a blog for the commission to help communicate to town. Sean will ask Gail about having separate blog and email. Sean will contact Alanna about corrections on town website concerning Con Com.

SB 451 anti-wildlife-trafficking bill: Honey Hastings reported SB451 has become chapter 226 and will take effect January 1st.

The group adjourned by 8:47 pm. Next meeting will be Wednesday, July 11th, 2018
