

TEMPLE CONSERVATION COMMISSION
Minutes of Public Meeting, August 26, 2015

Attendees: Cathy Joly, Lincoln Geiger, Sean Radcliffe, Honey Hastings
Absent: John Kieley, Eric Foley, Dave Repack, Adie Krulis

Opening at 6:37 pm

Discussion about new members to conservation commission

General discussion about new members. It is not clear if Adie Krulis is a official member now. Lincoln Geiger said Dave Repack wants to remain on the Temple Conservation Commission. Sean Radcliffe mentioned some anti pipeline temple citizens could be interested in joining the Temple Conservation Commission.

Stormwater Management

Cathy Joly reported Barbara McMillan of NH DES cannot promise any presentation this fall. There is a possibility she could present in the winter. Cathy said DES had questioned what water bodies we were concerned with. The group noted the "Beaver Pond" in south west of Temple.

Discussion of the Kinder Morgan Pipeline through southern New Hampshire.

Sean discussed the efforts of the Temple ad hoc pipeline advisory committee. Honey advised the town has a resource of the Local Government Center for questions about NH Law. Sean would ask Gail Cromwell about how Temple accesses the resource.

The next meeting was scheduled for August September 15th at 6:30 pm.
